WORSHIP AID FOR THE 17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 25-26, 2020

ENTRANCE HYMN: PRAISE, MY SOUL, THE KING OF HEAVEN

Verse 1 *Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore His praises sing:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.*

Verse 2 *Praise Him for His grace and favor
To our children in distress;
Praise Him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glorious in His faithfulness.*

GLORIA (recited)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, We adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
Have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

FIRST READING: 1 KINGS 3:5, 7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted.

Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?" The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: "Because you have asked for this - not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right - I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Lord, I love your commands.

SECOND READING: ROMANS 8:28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 13:44-52

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full, they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. "Do you understand all these things?"

They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS:

Please respond: Lord, Hear our prayer.

COMMUNION HYMN: BE NOT AFRAID

Verse 1 *You shall cross the barren desert, but you shall not die of thirst.
You shall wander far in safety though you do not know the way.
You shall speak your words in foreign lands and all will understand.
You shall see the face of God and live.*

Refrain: Be not afraid.

*I go before you always;
Come follow me,
and I will give you rest.*

Verse 2 *If you pass through raging waters in the sea,
you shall not drown.
If you walk amid the burning flames, you shall not be harmed.
If you stand before the pow'r of hell and death is at your side, know that I am with you through it all. Refrain*

Verse 3 *Blessed are your poor, for the kingdom shall be theirs.
Blest are you that weep and mourn, for one day you shall laugh.
And if wicked men insult and hate you all because of me, blessed, blessed are you! Refrain*

COMMUNION HYMN: I WANT TO WALK AS A CHILD OF THE LIGHT

Verse 1 *I want to walk as a child of the light.
I want to follow Jesus.
God set the stars to give light the world.
The star of my life is Jesus.*

Refrain *In Him there is no darkness at all.
The night and the day are both alike.
The Lamb is the light of the city of God.
Shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.*

Verse 2 *I want to see the brightness of God.
I want to look at Jesus.
Clear Sun of Righteousness, shine on my path,
And show me the way to the Father. Refrain*

Verse 3 *I'm looking for the coming of Christ;
I want to be with Jesus.
When we have run with patience the race,
we shall know the joy of Jesus. Refrain*

RECESSIONAL HYMN: LET THERE BE PEACE ON EARTH

*Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God as our Father, brothers all are we;
Let me walk with my brother in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now.
With ev'ry step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.*

An explanation of what we mean when we pray in the Creed, "We believe in the communion of saints". The Communion of Saints is a doctrine that was included in the Apostles' Creed, and is based on St. Paul's 1st letter to the Corinthians, where he writes "For as with the human body which is a unity although it has many parts - all the parts of the body, though many, still making up one single body - so it is with Christ." In Catholic terminology, the Communion of Saints is said to comprise the Church Militant (those alive on earth), the Church Penitent (those undergoing purification in Purgatory in preparation for heaven) and the Church Triumphant (those already in heaven).

What is most beautiful about this doctrine is the belief that those who are in heaven are in the presence of God. They constantly intercede with the Father for us. They are part of the body of Christ whose prayers help us here on earth. St. Dominic said, "Do not weep, for I shall be more useful to you after my death and I shall help you then more effectively than during my life."

The Church also encourages us to imitate the holiness of the saints because they imitated the holiness of Christ. First among saints is our Blessed Mother, Mary, Queen of Heaven. She is the quintessential model for us all and never ceases to intercede on our behalf with her Son.

Due to the Coronavirus and its restrictions, St. John's Summer Festival has been cancelled. Instead, St. John parishioners will participate in a 125TH ANNIVERSARY SILENT SUMMER FESTIVAL. If you didn't receive a letter with the details of this fundraiser, please call the DeVivo Centre at 628-6840.

Priesthood Discernment Day

Attention all Catholic young men entering grades 9-12! Do you know that Christ has a great plan for your life?

You are invited to attend a Priesthood Discernment Day to spend time with other young men your age who are considering the Lord's call on their lives. This event will include the opportunity to listen to seminarians share their stories of God's call, participate in Mass and Eucharistic Adoration, and time to enjoy the brotherhood with other young Catholic men. Priesthood Discernment Day will take place on MON, JUL 27 at Christ Our Shepherd Center in Greensburg. If you're interested, visit gbgvocations.org for more info and registration.

St. John's 125th Anniversary Committee will meet on TUE, JUL 28 at 6:30pm in Moravek Hall.

A PARENT-ONLY informational meeting for upcoming 8th graders preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation will take place on MON, AUG 3 at 6:30pm in St. Rita's Bucci Hall. Please contact Mary Sampey at 628-6840 if you are UNABLE to attend.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of JOSEPH ALESANTRINO, who died recently. May his soul and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in eternal peace.

KATHY, TINA & DEB

are our parish housekeepers. We thank them for being our St. Marthas, especially for all the priest gatherings and of course, the daily upkeep of the rectories. May God keep them in His care and blessings.

WED, JUL 29, is the Feast of St. Martha.

Martha, her sister, Mary, and their brother,

Lazarus lived in the town of Bethany, near Jerusalem. The Gospel of John records that Jesus loved all 3 of them. They were important to Him. In that time and culture, women were treated as inferior to men. But Jesus treated women as equals. He called Martha, Mary and Lazarus His friends. The Gospels tell us that He laughed and cried with them. Martha's conversations with Jesus show that she was able to say just what she thought without any pious nonsense. When she gave a dinner in Jesus' honor, Martha asked His support in getting her sister, Mary to pitch in and help. In reply, Jesus gave both sisters permission to sit at His feet as disciples. Women weren't permitted to study with a Rabbi, so Jesus was taking a bold stand in treating His 2 friends that way.

Even when her brother, Lazarus died, Martha did not give up her faith. She told Jesus, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Messiah, the Son of God, the One coming into the world." Jesus wept at the tomb of Lazarus. And then Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead.

Martha developed a reputation over the centuries as the practical and active Christian, so she is often pictured with a cooking ladle or a set of household keys. She is a Patron Saint of cooks and of hospitality. Today, we celebrate that we, like Martha, Mary and Lazarus, can be ourselves with Jesus. We can say what we really think. We can welcome Christ into our homes through hospitality to family, friends and strangers alike. To help us here is

"A PRAYER TO SHOW TRUE HOSPITALITY TO OTHERS"

Help us grasp the true notion of hospitality and practice it towards others. Most people are very willing to welcome into their midst their parents and friends, as well as those with whom they have professional or social contacts. But the Christian notion of hospitality goes far beyond this, and is based on a supernatural attitude. The welcome extended may be of a material nature, called a corporal work of mercy; or it may be of a spiritual nature. Lord, never let me limit my welcome only to those who can do the same for me. Let me focus on the fact that it is you, yourself, that I welcome when I show true hospitality to others, especially those who are in need. And a visit from you is always a revelation of salvation.

Church Directory

UPDATE

A note from Sr. Donna about the parish directory we are STILL waiting for: I spoke with the printing company, which is in Ohio, several weeks ago. It seems that they have been mostly closed down till about late May/early June. They had sent us the proof back in February. At that time I made the necessary corrections. (There were quite a few!) I sent it back to them in late February/early March. At that time because of the pandemic and being shut down, the things they were working on were literally shelved. Until I called, they didn't realize our parish directory was still on a shelf somewhere and had not been completed. They promised me that they would make the corrections and send me a 2nd proof copy electronically. I am now waiting for that. I am hoping that we will have finished copies in the next month. They were quite apologetic when they found out we hadn't received our books yet ... so we'll see what happens. I will try to keep after them. If I hear anything I will let you know. Please let others know what has happened.

P.S. One of the gentlemen who was here selling the pictures was in a car wreck a month after he was here, and he died from the accident. I don't know if that delayed the company in any way or not. I have been disappointed in how long this has taken.

DANCING WITH GOD. When I meditated on the word GUIDANCE, I kept seeing "dance" at the end of it, and I remember reading that doing God's will is a lot like dancing. When two people try to lead, nothing feels right., The movement doesn't flow with the music, and everything is quite uncomfortable and jerky. When one person realizes that and lets the other lead, both bodies begin to flow with the music. One gives gentle cues, perhaps with a nudge to the back, or by pressing lightly in one direction or another. It's as if two become one body, moving beautifully. The dance takes surrender, willingness, and attentiveness from one person and gentle guidance and skill from the other.

My eyes drew back to the word GUIDANCE. When I saw "G", I thought of God, followed by "U" and "I". "God, "U" and "I" dance ... GOD, YOU AND I DANCE!

As I lowered my head, I became willing to trust that I would get guidance about my life and once again, I became willing to let God lead. My prayer for you today is that God's blessings and mercies are upon you on this day and every day. May you abide in God, as He abides in you. Dance together with God, trusting Him to lead and to guide you through each season of your life. If God has done anything for you in your life, please share this with someone else.

AND I HOPE YOU DANCE!

A FESTIVAL THANK YOU...

Through beautiful summer evenings on JUL 10, 11 and 17, cars entered St. Rita's parking lot for a spectacular "take-out" array of Italian food, and fellowship, and even fun, that is definitely a trait of our hospitality and happiness.

I thank everyone who prayed for beautiful evenings, and had their prayers answered with a bright sun, a few cooling breezes, a refreshing shower and balmy, hot asphalt. We thank all those who cooked, baked, fried, packaged, carried, took orders, collected money and slips, filled orders, directed traffic, gave encouraging remarks, washed pots, pans and other various utensils, and those who were in the vehicles watching all the excitement as customers. And all others who helped in any other way.

We especially thank St. Rita Christian Mothers, who spearheaded, along with other devoted men and women, who prepped and cooked the food, and worked in the social hall kitchen, not only on festival days, but for the past 3 months. We are famous for our food here at St. Rita's and once again there was nothing but raves about all our menu items.

Since this was our first "St. Rita's To Go" festival, we had to write a whole new manual for these days of "drive-through". We thank in a special way our committee chairpersons for doing just that. We thank them for the time they spent on the phone contacting workers, ordering supplies, transferring the necessities, to help these evenings run smoothly. Our chairpersons, Anthony Lembo and Paul Mongell, and our food and kitchen chairperson, Rita Pratt, all did so much behind-the-scenes, that nobody notices or sees, but we appreciated it wholeheartedly.

All the monetary figures are not calculated yet, so we will share them with you as soon as possible, after all the bills are paid.

Thank you once again one and all, and may God continue to bless you for your service to His church of St. Rita, and your parish.

It's vacation time. For some it's fishing. For others golf, tennis, a trip. Whatever it may be, it changes your regular routine. Have a good time. Keep yourself and your family safe. If you're planning to be away, why not send in your offering envelopes for those weeks ahead of time, so that you'll know you're helping your church meet bills that must be paid each week. You can be a conscientious parishioner by knowing you have contributed. God bless you! Enjoy your summer!

KNOWING WHAT IS RIGHT

The beginning of wisdom is its absence.

When we reach inside ourselves and realize what we do not have, we start the journey to attain what we need.

When we speak about someone having "the wisdom of Solomon," we mean he or she is wise beyond measure. Solomon won that wisdom by first acknowledging he was not smart enough to do the job God had given him to do.

Solomon's father was David, the greatest of the kings. Solomon followed him while still a youth. He was placed in charge of numerous people. Solomon, not wishing to disappoint God, feared that he lacked the skills necessary for the task. So he asked God for wisdom to tell right from wrong.

Another leader might have asked for a long life and personal gain, or for riches and personal pleasure, or for the death of enemies and the removal of fear. But Solomon realized he needed something more practical for the people he was to lead: the wisdom to know right from wrong.

When we face a decision, the first step may be to acknowledge we do not know the answer. We ask God not for personal gain, but for the gift of knowing what is the right thing to do. That will bring peace.
