GLORIA (recited)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, We adore you, we glorify you,

We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy
on us;

You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 55: 6-9

Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

SECOND READING: PHIL 1:20c-24, 27a

Brothers and sisters: Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two.
I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit. Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 20:1-16a

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.' When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman,
'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.' He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS:

Please respond: Lord, hear our prayer.

Once again the Diocese of Greensburg wishes all parishes to do a count of Catholics attending Mass. During the month of OCT, our ushers will be taking a headcount, and we will share the results of that with you when it is completed.

Please pray for the repose of the souls of FLORENCE DIRISIO (sister of Marge Orlando), JOAN HELINSKY and ESTER ZIZKA, who died recently. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in eternal peace.

People decide to become a member of the Catholic Church for many reasons and at different times of their lives. Sometimes it's the desire to share in the same faith as a fiancé or child. Sometimes it's because of the faith we see in someone else...some people may have been going to Mass for years, but just never became Catholic; some have always been drawn to Catholicism but have never investigated it further. Maybe you or someone you know is at a cross-roads of life and would like to explore the possibility of become Catholic. Our parishes invite you to come and see what the Catholic faith is all about through the process of RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. In the RCIA those interested in the Catholic faith meet to learn about the church and to deepen their relationship with God. RCIA is for Christians of other denominations, for those of other faiths who have never been baptized, and for Catholics who have never received the sacraments of Penance, Eucharist and Confirmation. For more details please call Mary at 628-6840.

If you need pastoral care, PLEASE have someone call the DeVivo or Brady Centre parish offices. Due to HIPPA regulations, we are not notified by hospitals/other care facilities, so we may not know of your particular situation.

CANDLES IN CHURCHES. The candles and oil lamps in our churches are not just pretty decorations or minimal props required by liturgical law. They are symbols of the Light of Christ and the Light of Baptism. Interacting with

TODAY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19TH MARKS THE 125TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST PARISH IN CONNELLSVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA. Bishop Phelan of the Pittsburgh Diocese appointed Fr. Raymond Wider as the first pastor of St. John's and he made the first entry, verifying this date. Slovak and other ethnic groups including Poles, Hungarians, Croats, Lithuanians, Czechs and Italians from within a radius of 20 miles registered and became members of the first parish community. The present church building was completed in 1899 at an approximate cost of $14,000, and included 3 bells, a pipe organ and a seating capacity of 533 persons.

So many parishioners and friends have journeyed through our doors to pray, to learn, or to party, that we could never give a count of all those whose faith was enriched by the presence of this parish. A few people of sturdy stock and faith began with pride, one hundred and twenty-five years ago, what you and I call our spiritual home on earth.

It is quite a milestone that we have achieved and we are celebrating it today with a Mass and a reception. We welcome the Dean and former priests who have served our parish over the years to celebrate with us.

Today we celebrate our Catholic heritage with prayer, hospitality, reverence, congeniality and friendship, that have become synonymous with our parish of St. John the Evangelist.

Together let us enjoy one another's presence and company as we strive to better the St. John family in our hearts, and as we pray together for our past, present and future. Congratulations to us for being the firm recipients of a firm Catholic foundation which we lovingly and faithfully pass on to the future Catholics of our area.

PRAYER FOR RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Your loving providence accompanies us on our life's journey.

Thank you for the many gifts you have given us.,

We ask that you continue to call sons and daughters from our families and parishes to serve as priests, deacons and consecrated men and women in the Diocese of Greensburg.

Send your Spirit upon us so that many will respond with great love to your call to service and leadership in your Church.

Give to those you have chosen the faith of the apostle, the vision of the prophet, and the courage of the martyr.

Through the intercessions of our Diocesan patroness,

Our Lady of the Assumption, help us to be faithful disciples of your Son by following the example of Mary.

Make us generous in sharing ourselves and our talents for the sake of your Kingdom on earth.

We ask this through Christ the Risen Lord.

The Most Reverend Lawrence E. Brant

them can shape and direct our affection. Candles should be natural and beautiful elements within our interactions; substitute tubes of polyethylene or electric bulbs are not generally used. CANDLES IN PARTICULAR PLACES. We do not just look at candles in church. We share flames from them, follow their lead in procession, and use them to delimit certain reserved areas. Every parish needs candles for at least these actions.

25TH SUN IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 55:6-9

TRUST IN GOD'S WISDOM

It is hard to figure God out. Looking around creation we see beautiful places but also areas of devastation. We meet charitable people but also others who are unkind. We see homes of the rich and the streets of the homeless. One family prospers. Another suffers multiple tragedies. What was God thinking by creating such inequality?

Our own lives are also filled with blessing and sorrow. Momentary incidents have forever shaped us. Friends have rescued us. Death stalks us. It is hard to figure out what God has in mind.

God spoke to Isaiah, "My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways." You can say that again. As hard as it is to read the mind of God, God does not choose to act the way we think a divine, loving Being should.

Through the prophet, God does not apologize for the way things are. Instead, God simply tells us we will never quite figure it out. The best we can do is turn to God for mercy.

To accept the wisdom of God requires faith and humble admission of our own inability to fully probe God's plan. It also takes trust that God will ultimately bring about the good that awaits all creation.
