and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.*

Refrain: *And I will raise you up, And I will raise you up,
And I will raise you up on the last day.*

Verse 2 The bread that I will give

*Is my flesh for the life of the world,
And if you eat of this bread,
You shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.*

Refrain

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
We adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty
Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive
our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
Have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone
are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: DEUTERONOMY 8:2-3, 14B-16A

Moses said to the people:

"Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD.

"Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem. Alleluia.

SECOND READING: 1 COR. 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters:

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Alleluia.

GOSPEL: JOHN 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN: TASTE AND SEE

Refrain: Taste and see, O taste and see, taste and see the goodness of God.

Verse 1 Glory, glory to God most high, glory, blessing and praise.

With one voice, O people, rejoice in our God, Who hears the cry of all in need. Refrain

Verse 2 Who has fashioned the earth and sky, who created the deep,

Who exalts the lowly and sets captives free, Who opens the door to all those who seek.

Refrain

Verse 3 Oh, the love of God! Become flesh of our flesh, So that we might live in glory. Refrain

COMMUNION HYMN: GIFT OF FINEST WHEAT

Refrain: You satisfy the hungry heart With gift of finest wheat, Come give to us, O saving Lord, The bread of life to eat.

Verse 1 As when the shepherd calls his sheep, They know and heed his voice; So when you call your family, Lord, We follow and rejoice.

Refrain

Verse 2 With joyful lips we sing to you Our praise and gratitude, That you should count us worthy, Lord, To share this heav'nly food.

Refrain

Verse 3 Is not the cup we bless and share The blood of Christ outpoured? Do not one cup, one loaf, declare Our oneness in the Lord?

Refrain

RECESSATIONAL HYMN: ALLELUIA! SING TO JESUS

Verse 1 Alleluia! Sing to Jesus! His the scepter, his the throne; Alleluia! His the triumph, His the victory alone! Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion Thunder like a mighty flood; Jesus out of ev'ry nation Hath redeemed us by His blood.

Verse 2 Alleluia! King eternal, Thee the Lord of lords we own; Alleluia! Born of Mary, Earth thy footstool, Heav'n thy throne. Thou within the veil hast entered, Robed in flesh, our great High Priest; Thou on earth both priest and victim In the Eucharistic feast.

This SAT, JUN 20, is the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Our Lady of Fatima is said to have asked for the consecration of the world to Her Immaculate Heart. To it, must be added devout prayers, a true repentance and penance for the sins of men. In 1942, Pope Pius XII consecrated the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Please pray for the repose of the souls of DONNA MAYROS DEBELLIS (Sister of Kathy Holup and Larry Mayros, Aunt of Lorri DeMarco), VIVIAN McDERMOTT, JOSEPH SAGES and JAMES "JIM" SILBAUGH III (Father of James Silbaugh IV), who died recently. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in eternal peace.

Today in the Church we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This feast is also known by its Latin name, "Corpus Christi". To recall the institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday, when sorrow over the Passion, the prime thought during Holy Week, hinders a proper celebration, this feast was established and is celebrated on the Thursday (or Sunday) after Trinity Sunday. It owes its origin to the progressive development of worship and devotion to the Blessed Eucharist during the Middle Ages, and to a revelation to St. Juliana of Liege where it was first celebrated as a local feast. In 1264 it was extended to the Universal Church.

This FRI, JUN 19, is the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This feast is a reminder of all that we owe to the love of our Divine Redeemer. It is an appeal to our gratitude and it should prompt us to offer to the Divine Heart satisfaction and reparation for the numerous offenses of which we and others have been guilty. Appearing to St. Margaret Mary Alacogue during the Octave of Corpus Christi in the year 1675, Jesus said to her, "This is the heart which has loved men so much and in turn is so little loved by them."

Prayer to the Sacred Heart

It seems strange to be addressing a special prayer to Thee, O Sacred Heart, since it is to Thee that all my prayers are eventually directed. But perhaps the present prayer is not so much a supplication as a statement. I want to explain that my intention is from now onwards to imitate Thy Sacred Heart, not merely to ask its favors. In answer to Thy Gospel invitation I come to learn of Thee, not merely look at Thee; to take Thy lead, not merely talk about Thy love. Lord, I purpose to myself the self-sacrifice, the meekness, the accessibility, the hospitality, the generosity toward the Father and my fellow Christians, which is exemplified for us in the ever-open Heart of Jesus. Amen.

We need additional people willing to spend a half hour with our Lord during our WED Adoration at St. Rita's. We'd like to have at least 2 or 3 individuals for each time slot, so we know that the Eucharist will not be left alone, which is not permitted. In addition to your own intentions, consider coming to pray for an end to the pandemic, for the unemployed to be able to find work, or for a way for our country to deal with the racism and the violence that has taken place in our streets. These and so many other issues that affect our daily lives desperately need our prayers.

Please call Pam Akers at 628-1599 or Sr. Donna at 628-6840 for more information or to sign up.

As we begin vacation season, I hope this prayer may set the tone for your travels, both far and near. Fr. Paul

A BLESSING PRAYER FOR A FAMILY ABOUT TO LEAVE ON A JOURNEY

Blessed are You, Lord our God, for You have created a wide and wonderful world in which we can travel. We ask Your blessings upon us as we are about to leave on a journey. Be our ever-near companion, O Holy Guide of Travelers, and spread the road before us with beauty and adventure. May all the roads of ours be free of harm and evil. May we be accompanied by your Holy Spirit.

Your angelic messengers, as were the holy ones of days past, on this trip may we take with us, as part of our traveling equipment, a heart wrapped in wonder with which to rejoice in all that we shall meet. Along with the clothing of wonder, may we have room in our luggage by which we can find the invisible meanings of the events of this journey, of possible disappointments and delays, of breakdowns and rainy day troubles.

Always awake to Your Sacred Presence, to Your Divine Compassionate Love, may we see in all that happens to us, the beautiful and the bad, the Mystery of Your Holy Plan.

May the Blessing of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit be upon us throughout this trip and bring us home again in safety and peace. Amen.

PLEASE REMEMBER THOSE ON OUR PRAYER LIST:
Marsha and Barry Huey, Ruth Ann Denard, Anita Zentarsky, David Bixel & Family, Doug Pirl.

Catholic Charities offers virtual counseling. Social distancing can take a toll. So can waiting in line to get into a grocery or hardware store. It's not unusual to feel angry, or frustrated, or confused. For some people, the pandemic restrictions can magnify feelings of anxiety, depression, interpersonal conflict, grief and a wide variety of other issues. Catholic Charities provides virtual counseling to help address those issues and more. Taking care of your own emotional well-being is very important to you and the people you love. You don't need to face these feelings alone. Call Catholic Charities at 837-1840 or email counseling@dioceseofgreensburg.org.

Registration is open for Pathways, which is the diocese's commitment to adult faith formation and nurturing mature discipleship. There are 12 sessions, 3 workshops and a closing retreat. Pathways is tentatively scheduled for TUEs from 6:30-9pm at St. John in Scottdale, beginning in SEP.

Today, SUN, JUN 14. is the holiday known as Flag Day. When the American Revolution broke out in 1775, the colonists weren't fighting united under a single flag. Instead, most regiments participating in the war for independence against the British fought under their own flags. In June of 1775, the Second Continental Congress met in Philadelphia to create the Continental Army - a unified colonial fighting force - with the hopes of more organized battle against its oppressors. This led to the creation of what was essentially, the first "American" flag, the Continental Colors.

For some, this flag, which was comprised of 13 red and white alternating stripes and a Union Jack in the corner, was too similar to that of the British. George Washington soon realized that flying a flag that was even remotely close to the British flag was not a great confidence-builder for the revolutionary effort, so he turned his attention towards creating a new symbol of freedom for the soon-to-be fledgling nation.

On June 14, 1777, the Second Continental Congress took a break from writing the Articles of Confederation, and passed a resolution stating that "the flag of the United States be 13 stripes, alternate red and white", and that "the union be 13 stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

In 1916 President Woodrow Wilson marked the anniversary of that decree by officially establishing June 14 as Flag Day.

In the 1950's when it seemed certain that Alaska would be admitted to the Union, designers began retooling the American flag to add a 49th star to the existing 48. Meanwhile, a 17 year-old Ohioan named Bob Heft, borrowed his mother's sewing machine, disassembled his family's 48-star flag and stitched on 50 stars in a proportional pattern. He handed in his creation to his history teacher for a class project, explaining that he expected Hawaii would soon achieve statehood as well. Heft also sent the flag to his congressman, who presented it to President Eisenhower after both new states joined the Union. Eisenhower selected Heft's design, and on July 4, 1960, the president and the high school student stood together as the 50-star flag was raised for the first time. Heft's teacher promptly changed his grade from a B- to an A.

SUMMER SOLSTICE IS SUN, JUN 21. On this day the sun is at its highest in the northern hemisphere. It is the official beginning of summer, and an ancient day of celebration. In places north of the Arctic Circle, called "the land of the midnight sun", the sun never sets during the days near the summer solstice. In most of northern Europe, although the sun does set for awhile each day, these are called "the days that never end" because dawn begins before the evening twilight has faded. The sky is never completely dark.

Many ancient peoples made today one of the great feasts. People lit huge bonfires during these shortest nights of the year to announce the official change of seasons. Some sort of protection at this time of year seemed especially important because spirits were thought to wander about during festival times.

As European nations became Christian, the solstice traditions became associated with the birth of St. John the Baptist (JUN 24), called Mid-Summer Day, because it is midway between the vernal and autumnal equinoxes.

I Corinthians 10:16-17
REAL COMMUNION

"The Body of Christ" refers to the church as well as to the Eucharist. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, we have communion with God and with one another.

Jesus is present to us in many ways. We hear his voice in the Gospel. We experience his love in our community. We receive him sacramentally in the Eucharist. We are called the Body of Christ because Christ dwells with us.

St. Paul wrote the Corinthians, "Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf."

When we receive Communion we experience our communion with one another. Many though we are, we are one in Christ. Just as many grains of wheat make one loaf, just as one loaf is shared by many people, just as many people become one by sharing that one loaf, so do the many become one in Christ. Jesus unites our community when we share our communion together.

Paul's words were especially significant to the Corinthians. He began this letter addressing the divisions in their church and calling the faithful there to unity. At this point in his letter, we understand why. Their unity in the church is critical to the integrity of their worship. If our Eucharist is to be sincere, our communion must be real. We eat the Body of Christ. We drink the Blood of Christ. We are the Body of Christ.
