WORSHIP AID FOR THE 13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 27-28, 2020

All hymns reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-735575

ENTRANCE HYMN: ALL ARE WELCOME

Verse 1 Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, A place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive. Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace; here the love of Christ shall end divisions; all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Verse 2 Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew. Here the cross shall stand as witness, and a symbol of God's grace; here as one we claim the faith of Jesus: all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
We adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
Have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us, he can stay there." Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight.

Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her." When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING: ROMANS 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.

As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God.

Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 10: 37-42

Jesus said to his apostles: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple - Amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN: WHATSOEVER YOU DO

Refrain Whatsoever you do to the least of my people, That you do unto me.

Verse 1 *When I was hungry, you gave me to eat;
When I was thirsty, you gave me to drink. Now enter into the home of My Father. Refrain*

Verse 2 *When I was homeless, you opened your door;
When I was naked, you gave me your coat.
Now enter into the home of My Father. Refrain*

Verse 3 *When I was weary, you helped me find rest.
When I was anxious, you calmed all my fears.
Now enter into the home of My Father. Refrain*

COMMUNION HYMN: CHURCH OF GOD, ELECT AND GLORIOUS

Verse 1 Church of God, elect and glorious, holy nation, chosen race; called as God's own special people, royal priests and heirs of grace: know the purpose of your calling, show to all God's mighty deeds; tell of love which knows no limits, grace which meets all human needs.

Verse 2 *God has called you out of darkness into his most marv'lous light; brought his truth to life within you, turned your blindness into sight. Let your light so shine around you that God's name is glorified;
and all find fresh hope and purpose in Christ Jesus crucified.*

Verse 3 Once you were an alien people, strangers to God's heart of love; but he brought you home in mercy, citizens of Heaven above. Let his love flow out to others, let them feel a Father's care; that they too may know his welcome and his countless blessings share.

Verse 4 Church of God, elect and holy, be the people he intends; strong in faith and swift to answer each command your master sends: royal priests, fulfill your calling through your sacrifice and prayer; give your lives in joyful service, sing his praise, his love declare.

RECESSIONAL HYMN: THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION

Verse 1 *The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the Word:
From heav'n he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.*

Verse 2 *Elect from ev'ry nation, yet one o'er all the earth;
Her charter of salvation, "one Lord, one faith,
one birth!"
One holy Name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses with ev'ry grace endued.*

ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

God, our source of all freedom,

This day is bright with memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.

Help us to continue a good work begun long ago.

Make our vision clear
and our will strong,
that only in human solidarity
will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.

Turn our hearts to the family of nations to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship
and to find safety,
only in the common good of all.
Amen

This coming SAT is July 4.

We Americans have been a fortunate people. From our beginnings, we have never been oppressed by dictatorship; we are a democracy. While we have experienced the horror of war, we have never been invaded. While we have not always achieved the goal of liberty and justice for all, we have not given up striving toward it. We are, indeed, most fortunate.

But such a good fortune is not a matter of luck, much less a matter of unmerited blessing. The freedom we have is a freedom we must responsibly maintain. Such freedom must be worked at. Given as a gift, it must be used with care and gratitude. Each of us is called upon to value the gift. We are called as Christians as well as Americans, to pass along the freedom of life and its happiness to one another without conditions or restraint. Equally so, the gift must be passed on to other people. Iraq and

St. Rita Parish will be holding a of traffic, if necessary.

Afghanistan, North Korea and some of the African countries - these are just a few people who struggle for the freedom we have. Some people submit, others rise up; but all know that where we are they have not yet arrived.

The wars and conflicts highlight the distance of understanding and compassion among the people of the world. Not all yet look upon each other as family. The feud of the old Hatfields and McCoys has magnified to the preposterous dimension of nuclear war and extinction. Anything can trigger the end of everyone! What horror!

We pray in our good fortune for all God's family, whoever they are and however they think. We pray that our generation might provide for this family a greater sense of liberty and justice, equality and love. We cannot rest in our good fortune without increasing the heritage of freedom for the children of the world, all God's people and ours. May our prayers reflect these dreams of liberty, and thank God for His gift to each of us.

FRI, JUN 29 is The Feast of the Apostles, Saints Peter and Paul.

In the 4th century on this day, Roman Christians would follow the bishop in procession as he celebrated the Liturgy first at the Church of St. Peter (which was built over the saint's burial place) and then at the Church of St. Paul, outside the Walls.

Rome isn't the only city that celebrates this great day. Today's celebration is kept by all the liturgical churches all over the world. Eastern churches even have a period of fasting to prepare for this feast.

Peter and Paul came from thoroughly different backgrounds and had different gifts, but they had one great bond: both were called forth by Jesus' love.

Jesus gave Peter his name - which means "rock" - at their first meeting. Jesus had chosen him to be the rock on which the new Church would be built. According to the Gospels, Peter often showed an understanding of Christ, but when Jesus was arrested and crucified, Peter denied Christ 3 times and hid in fear. When Jesus was risen from the dead, he told Peter, "Feed my lambs".

Peter was recognized by the other disciples as their leader. He called the apostles to select a replacement for Judas. On Pentecost morning, he preached a bold sermon. He performed the first miracle of healing in the name of Jesus. In a dream, he came to understand that the Gospel message was for everyone on earth, not only the Jews like himself. Finally, he made his way to Rome, the center of the empire.

Peter was probably imprisoned 3 or 4 times before being martyred around the year 64 during the persecutions of the emperor Nero. According to legend, he asked to be crucified upside down, since he did not feel worthy to die the same way Jesus had died.

Early in his life, Paul determinedly persecuted Christians. But then he had a vision of Jesus, which left him with a complete change of heart. When Paul began preaching Christ, the Christians naturally were afraid of him. But over the next 30 years, Paul was able to convince them of his sincerity.

Paul was well-equipped to be a missionary. He had a bright mind and a good education. He was familiar with the Scriptures because he had studied to be a Rabbi.

Paul made 4 missionary journeys, crisscrossing the Mediterranean Sea. It's difficult to imagine what a challenge that must have been. Traveling by ship back then was something like traveling by space shuttle is today - it was expensive, dangerous and highly unusual. Paul was even shipwrecked. The exciting story is told in chapter 27 of the Acts of the Apostles.

Wherever Paul went, he left behind small Christian communities. He preached to all classes of people. A lot of what we know about Paul is from his letters to the various people and communities he cared about. Christian writings were written even before the Gospels.

Like Peter, Paul was martyred by Nero, perhaps around the year 67. Unlike Peter, Paul was a Roman citizen. This gave him the right to a trial, and when he was convicted, to a quick execution.

There is a legend that the city of Rome was founded by the brothers Romulus and Remus, who were raised by wolves. Peter and Paul came to be called the new founders of Rome. Their solemnity is a grand holiday in the city, a day on which Rome celebrates itself and all its treasures.

We still need people willing to spend a half hour with our Lord during our WED Adoration at St. Rita's. We'd like to have at least 2 or 3 individuals for each time slot. Please call Pam Akers at 628-1599 or Sr. Donna at 628-6840 for more information or to sign up.

Are you or someone you know interested in becoming Catholic? Now is the time to call Mary Sampey, Director of Evangelization, at 628-6840. Becoming a member of the Catholic faith is a big step in your life. Summer is a good time to meet with us and ask questions. When fall rolls around, people who wish to join the church begin a serious and more structured phase of preparation. So take the opportunity NOW to find out in a relaxed and comfortable way, if you are ready to start this journey.

REMINDER. If you need pastoral care, PLEASE have someone call the DeVivo Centre and Brady Centre parish offices. Due to HIPAA regulations, we are not notified by hospitals/other care facilities, so we may not know of your particular situation.

If you've completed high school, or are over 18, you must register at your home parish as an adult.

If you are ever asked to be a God-parent or Sponsor, you must present proof of parish membership, which will not be verified if you are still listed as a child on your parents' registration. You may call the DeVivo Centre at 628-6840 or the Brady Centre at 277-4236 to take care of this detail. Forms are also in the back of the churches, or online at the parish website, www.youghcatholic.org.

SUN, JUN 28, 2020 13TH SUN IN ORDINARY TIME Romans 6:3-4, 8-11 THE WALKING DEAD

They speak of someone on death row as a dead man walking. The person sentenced to die is as good as dead. He or she may be walking around, but the person's life has virtually ended.

All Christians can be called dead people walking, though in a different way. In Baptism, we die to sin, but we continue to walk in the new life of Christ. Christians may be dead, but our life has virtually begun.

Some Christians are baptized as infants. Some are baptized as adults. When adults are baptized, they are asked to renounce their former way of life, to turn away from anything that keeps them from allegiance to Christ. When infants are baptized, parents and godparents renew their commitment to Christ, and they pledge to share it with the child. Baptism makes all the difference in the world. It totally redirects our lives toward Christ, whether we are changing course as adults or committing ourselves to Christ from the start as infants.

St. Paul says to the Romans, "You too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus." Christians are dead, yet walking.

Throughout our lives we recommit ourselves to our baptismal promises. We do it weekly at church when we recite the Creed. We do it any time we attend a baptism. We also do it each year at the Easter Vigil. We turn away from sin and turn toward Christ, who shows us how to walk in the newness of life.
