FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT * DECEMBER 2-3, 2023

ENTRANCE HYMN: COME NOW, ALMIGHTY KING

1. Come now, almighty King,
Help us Thy Name to sing,
Help us to praise!
Father all glorious, o'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us, Ancient of Days!
2. Come now, incarnate Word,
Who for us death endured.
Our prayer attend.
Come, and your people bless,
And give your Word success;
Fill us with righteousness, Savior and friend.

CONFITEOR:

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 63:16B-17, 19B; 64:2-7

You, Lord, are our father, our redeemer you are named forever. Why do you let us wander, O Lord, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not? Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage. Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before you, while you wrought awesome deeds we could not hope for, such as they had not heard of from of old. No ear has ever heard, no eye ever seen, any God but you doing such deeds for those who wait for him. Would that you might meet us doing right, that we were mindful of you in our ways!

Behold, you are angry, and we are sinful; all of us have become like unclean people, all our good deeds are like polluted rags; we have all withered like leaves, and our guilt carries us away like the wind. There is none who calls upon your name, who rouses himself to cling to you; for you have hidden your face from us and have delivered us up to our guilt. Yet, O Lord, you are our father; we are the clay and you the potter: we are all the work of your hands.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved.

SECOND READING: I CORINTHIANS 1:3-9

Brothers and sisters: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always on your account for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way, with all discourse and all knowledge, as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you, so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will keep you firm to the end, irreproachable on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia!

GOSPEL: MARK 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples: "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch. Watch, therefore; you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'"

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

INTERCESSIONS: Please respond: Come, Lord Jesus

OFFERTORY HYMN: JESU, JOY OF OUR DESIRING

1. *Jesu, joy of our desiring,
Holy wisdom, love most bright,
Drawn by You, our souls aspiring,
Soar to uncreated Light.
Word of God,
our flesh that fashioned
With the fire of life impassioned,
Striving still to truth unknown,
Soaring, dying 'round your throne.*
2. *Through the way where hope
is guiding,
Hear what peaceful music rings;
Where the flocks in you confiding,
Drink of joy from deathless springs!
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure;
Theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure;
You do ever lead your own,
In the love of joys unknown.*

SANCTUS

*Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.*

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

*We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection
until you come, until you come again.*

LAMB OF GOD

*Lamb of God,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God,
you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.*

COMMUNION HYMN: BREAD OF LIFE

Refrain

*Bread of life, hope of the world,
Jesus Christ, our brother;
Feed us now, give us life,
Lead us to one another.*

1. *Be with your people, Lord,
Send us your Saving Word;
Jesus Christ, light of gladness,
Come among us now. Refrain*
2. *Bring to our world of fear
The truth we long to hear.
Jesus Christ, hope of ages,
Come to save us now. Refrain*

THIS WED, DEC 6 IS THE FEAST DAY OF ST. NICHOLAS.

Nicholas may be the most popular saint of all time. Numerous churches are named after him. He seems to be portrayed by artists more than any other saint, with the exception of Mary.

Nicholas was the bishop of the city of Myra in Asia Minor, now the nation of Turkey. Centuries after he died, his bones were brought to the city of Bari in Italy. People came to his tomb to pray and many were healed of their illnesses.

According to a legend, when Nicholas was a baby and his parents brought him to church to be baptized, he jumped eagerly into the water. When he grew up and was named bishop, he became known as the "wonder maker". He could heal the sick and calm storms.

A story is told about a man who was so poor that he could no longer buy food for his family. He was going to sell his daughters into slavery so they would not starve. Bishop Nicholas found out about this, so at night he tossed three bags of gold into their house through a window.

In many places, families are visited today by someone dressed up like

St. Nicholas. His visit is usually scary. He is accompanied by a devil, who snorts and groans and rattles chains. Bishop Nicholas tells each person in the family about the things they do wrong, and encourages them to do better in the coming year. When he leaves, there is a feast, with tangerines as reminders of the gold he gave to help the poor women.

Candy canes remind us of his crosier, the shepherd's staff that bishops carry.

SOMETHING NEW “A NEW COVENANT”

The Bible includes both an Old Testament and a New Testament. “Testament” refers to the covenant God makes with us, the way God relates to us. During Advent, in church services, you will hear scripture readings coming from both Old and New Testaments, because both are important. Actually, the New Testament focuses on the nature of God in a way that makes the whole message better understood.

This is far different from old and new clothes. Hanging in our closets, old clothes tend to move toward the back and are little used. One in awhile, however, we look back and rediscover something we really liked and we put it on again. The Old Testament contains treasures that need to be seen and valued. Unlike clothing, it never goes out of style. The message it proclaims is always relevant to our present life.

The New Testament, though, makes God more real for us by revealing God’s nature in a personal way, in an actual person, born in Bethlehem, and still living in our hearts and minds.

Perhaps the reason that Advent is so important is that it gives us time to think about what His coming means. We are enabled to have within our lives a new and closer relationship with the eternal God. We can use Advent for understanding God’s nature more fully. We can experience God not as far off but near. We can see God’s laws and commandments not so much as something “demanded” of us but as something “offered” to help and guide us. Hearing the message of both testaments, we can see God’s love in both the shepherd of the 23rd Psalm and in the one, who so loved the world, as to give his only Son for us.

Advent can be a rich experience, if we can see ourselves in the light of both covenants, letting the new covenant help us discover God’s love afresh in our hearts. What a Christmas gift it would be if God’s love could be born within us in a new and deeply personal way! Let’s pray that this will happen!

As parishes we should Prepare the Way of the Lord with random acts of kindness allowing them to symbolize the straw that was used as bedding in the manger, where the Christ Child was placed by His Mother Mary on that first Christmas.

Every kind act, no matter how small, is like a pebble tossed into the pond of human caring; the rings reach out far beyond the point of impact; the action of our kind deeds impacts the people around us, those people act more kindly toward the people around them, and so it goes, on and on. This will allow others, family, friends and strangers, to open their hearts to the Christ Child.

In today’s bulletin is a special flyer. This page is a set of cards that says you performed an act of kindness in honor of the coming of the Messiah. Please cut these cards apart as you do any acts of kindness; write on the back of the card in a short phrase, the act you performed, then bring the cards to church and put them in the manger in the sanctuary. In this way we make the bedding for the Christ Child with our good labors and openness of our hearts.

Each adult and child can participate in the “bedding” of the mangers in our churches and our hearts. There will be extra sheets available in the back of the churches. It would be a great tribute to our parishes’ love of our Savior by making sure the mangers are filled with our acts of kindness during Advent, as we prepare the Way of the Lord.

Oplatky are now available in our churches. Your donation of $3 for 4 wafers may be put in the basket provided. They will also be available in the parish offices.

THE ADVENT WREATH: ITS SYMBOLS, ITS MEANINGS

- ◆ The wreath, a circle, expresses God’s unending eternity.
- ◆ Evergreen symbolizes God’s unchangeableness and our immortality.
- ◆ 4 candles, 1 for each week of Advent, represent the many hundreds of years people awaited the Redeemer.
- ◆ Violet candles and ribbon remind us of longing expectation.
- ◆ The rose candle symbolizes joy and hope in awaiting the birth of Jesus.
- ◆ Red ribbon stands for Jesus’ blood, shed on the cross.

AN ADVENT DAILY PRAYER

God of eternal mercy and love,
I lift my heart in prayer to you
throughout these Advent days.

Grant me patience
as I prepare the way
for Christ’s coming.

Inspire me with hope
to await eagerly
the return of Christ in glory.

Fill me with joy
to cry out with the whole Church
“Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus!”

DEC 3, 2023
1ST SUN OF ADVENT
WATCH OUT!

In Advent, we celebrate our hope that the Lord might come more fully into our lives. The first reading from Isaiah voices the hope of sinners for a redeemer. As sinners, we too hope for forgiveness. Unlike Isaiah, we know that God has come to bring us back, when the Father sent his Son, Jesus, to save us. And God's power was manifest in the raising of Christ from the dead. Our faith in Jesus leads us to a new way of looking at the world. We can see what God is doing as well as remembering what God has done.

The Gospel reminds us to look constantly for signs of God's work. Jesus says simply, "Watch!" Like the gatekeepers in Jesus' short parable, we need to keep our eyes open for him. Just as we expect people driving cars to turn off their cell phones and keep their eyes on the road, so we can stop looking for whatever makes us comfortable and watch for ways to love others as God loves us.

When we only look out for ourselves, we may miss the signs of God's presence around us. Instead of looking at the difficulties of life as obstacles, we can watch for them as opportunities to stretch our faith, to rely on God, or to show God's love to a friend.

The Corinthians were also watching for the Lord to come. Paul encourages them (and us) by his reminder that we "are not lacking in any spiritual gift" (1 Corinthians 1:7). The Holy Spirit gives us all we need to help each other prepare for the Lord's coming. They were thinking of Jesus as coming in glory. Though we don't see the full glory of the Lord, part of that glory is his presence in the sacraments. In them we celebrate not just the coming of the Lord, but his working in the world. He shares his life with us in baptism, gives us his Spirit in confirmation and himself in the Eucharist, heals us in reconciliation and the anointing of the sick, and calls us to make him present to others in holy orders and matrimony. You could almost say his second coming is taking place now. Watch for it.
